the policeman was there, and stepped up and introduced him, and pointed out the conductor who had his property in session.

After much persuasion the conductor taken up-town in a hoodlum was a judge, who took up the case. The charge was made and the conductor admitted having a book from the man making a charge. The case was soon concluded, the book returned and the conductor fined, having in addition to the costs, amounting to two dollars, they were leaving the court.

The information came to him in the form of a newspaper cutting, sent him by a friend. Two or three months later an acquaintance offered him considerable money.

"I suppose it's all right," said the shantyman, "but I don't know." "Have you no legal adviser?" asked the acquaintance.

"No," was his reply. "If they bring me money to us we shall be glad of it."

There Always Was the Way.

One of the difficulty even their own experience has been illustrating. An English paper tells of a lady who, arrayed in a new cloak a hansom the other day alighting hunted vainly for a entrance to the pocket where she so suddenly placed her purse. The lady so indignantly prolonged that a charioteer, who was not a man of amusement, remarked from his box:

Ex-Minister Robert T. Lincoln, when recently spoken to in regard to the Presidency in 1896, and told that the Republicans of the South were looking to him to lead the party to victory said: I am in no sense a candidate, he said, "for Presidential honors, but under no circumstance would I accept the nomination if it came to me from States that cannot deliver a single Republican electoral vote. Besides," he added, "you will find ninety-nine out of every one hundred Republicans in Illinois and the West are in favor of McKinley. If McKinley wins his fight this fall, as we all expect him to do, by a good majority, I think he will almost inevitably be the Republican standard bearer for President in 1896. No other name is seriously thought of at present in the West. The financial depression out here has made every one want McKinley times again." Robert T. Lincoln has a "level head." If McKinley carries Ohio by a good majority, which he surely will, he will be the next President of the United States. His candidacy will make the next election a square fight between Protection and Free Trade, and the latter will be forced to the wall.

The Supreme Court has reversed the order of Judge Levy, of San Francisco, in declaring the Pacific Bank insolvent, and appointing Sheriff McDade receiver. The Court decides that the Bank Commissioners are the only ones having any authority to wind up the affairs of the Bank.

Miss Rose Gilmore, of 241 Stagg street, Brooklyn, N. Y., wants to know of the whereabouts of her brother, Martin Gilmore, a miner. He is 55 years old, and was last heard from when he left Gold Hill, Nev., ten years ago to settle in California.

The Fall meeting of the California Press Association, which was to have been held at Paso Robles this week, has been postponed until sometime during the Midwinter Fair.

E. B. Thomas, superintendent of the Spring Hill mine at Grass Valley, has disappeared with $2,000, which was paid him by the company to pay the wages of the miners.

It is reported that Virginia City people will suffer for the want of wood this winter, that article being so highly-priced many will not be able to lay in a supply owing to the scarcity of money.

Another big gold strike has been made near Sonoma, Tuolumne county. Ore to the value of $90,000 per ton has been struck in the Rawhide mine, and the vein is an immense one.

This week has been children's week at the Fair, and thousands of youngsters have tramped through the grounds and buildings seeing the sights.

HANGING ON.

The Chicagoans are not satisfied with a six months' fair, and at this late day, upon the heels of its official closing, it has been decided to continue it into the Winter months—so long as the almighty dollar is in sight. Outside of the Pacific Coast, and to many within its confines, this notion of the Commissioners was not unexpected, and would have been noted without comment in this section had not San Francisco entered upon having a Midwinter Exposition, hanging upon the contingency of the World's Fair. It was too early a day for the promoters of the Midwinter enterprise to jump to conclusions as to future actions of the Commissioners of such a gigantic affair of a life time, and as a plain and certain business proposition that there are yet "millions in it," there is not a sensible man anywhere that would let up on such a good investment. It is unfortunate for the Midwinter Fair that the anticipated contingent from Chicago will be late in coming forward; however, the Commissioners can follow Chicago, and continue it a few months longer than contemplated.

The election at Indianapolis on the 10th was more of a rebuke to Cleveland and his party than at first reported. The Democrats were nearly wiped out of existence in that city. Last year the Democrats carried the city by 2,700 plurality, but what a change has taken place. On the 10th the Republicans carried the city by 3,000 majority, and elected the Mayor, Clerk, Police Judge, and six Councilmen-at-large. The Mayor has the appointment of all the Boards, so that the entire machinery of the city government will be in Republican hands. The result of this election will have its effect in Ohio and New York. It shows that the people have had enough of Democracy as dealt out by Cleveland and his supporters, and are now paving the way for a Republican Congress next year.

The third race between the Vigilant and the Valkyrie on Wednesday of last week was declared off, and the final race was held on Friday, the 13th, resulting in the Vigilant beating her rival, but it was a close race. The wind was high, a 30-mile breeze, and the sea rough, just what the English men had prayed for. The Valkyrie kept the lead until within seven miles of the starting point when the Vigilant gained and passed the Valkyrie, crossing the line about 9 minutes and 46 seconds ahead of the English yacht, and the Cup is safe for a while in the hands of its American custodians.

Our English consuls have been greatly disappointed in the failure of the yacht Valkyrie to capture the America cup. They have found out that our Yankee boats can beat the world, whether they have a light or heavy wind. The only show for them to capture the Cup is to have some Yankee go to England and build them an American yacht.

The coming election in New York will show whether there is decency enough in the Democratic party of that State to defeat Maynard, the corrupt and unprincipled Judge, who is that party's candidate for Judge of the highest Court in the State. Many of the Democratic papers are opposing him, as being a thief.

The silver miners of Colorado have turned their attention to prospecting for gold in that State with gratifying results, new mining districts having been discovered and old ones reopened. The richest discoveries have been made about Idaho Springs and Cripple Creek.

A carload of Kansas chickens and ducks recently passed through Reno for California. The car contained 6,000 fowls and was so arranged that all were easily fed and watered. It is a great shame that California cannot raise all the poultry she needs.

Tammany Hall is making great preparations for carrying New York at the approaching State election. The Tammanyites are registering colonies of illegal voters in New York city.

Nearly 1,000,000 people are on the verge of starvation in England. We must repeal the McKinley bill so that 1,000,000 or more can starve in the United States in order to give work to the 1,000,000 Englishmen.

About half past eight o'clock last Thursday night a masked man entered Rosenwald & Kahn's store at Plymouth, while the clerk was at the safe putting away the money preparatory to closing the store, and commanded the clerk to throw up his hands. Instead of throwing up his hands, the clerk raised up his right arm and writing desk for some purpose. The robber supposed he was reaching for a pistol and immediately became frightened and ran out through the back door, since which time he has not been heard from. The clerk took a couple of shots at him as he went out, but did not succeed in hitting him.—Amador Dispatch.

SILVER WEDDING.—Sunday last was the twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of A. F. Bryant and wife. In honor of the day, Mrs. A. P. Allen gave them a dinner party, several friends being invited to meet them at the festive board. After pleasantly enjoying two hours at the table, the guests bid adieu to the Allens, leaving the Bryants with them, and repaired to the latter's residence, where they were joined by other friends, so that the Bryants found, to their great surprise, their home in possession of friends. It was a genuine surprise, as they had kept very quiet about their anniversary, and supposed that but few knew it. The evening was spent in the enjoyment of music and singing, and after refreshments had been served, Judge Virden, on behalf of the ladies, presented the "happy couple" a beautiful silver teapot, then instrumental and vocal music were indulged in until near midnight, when adieu were said with wishes that all might live to attend their golden wedding. The following were present: A. P. Allen and wife, J. A. Brown and wife, A. E. Bryant and wife, E. M. Folger and wife, Judge H. L. Leavitt and wife, Dr. C. Sinclair and wife, Judge W. H. Virden and wife, Mrs. S. A. Hopkins, Mrs. O. M. Stewart, Misses Annie Bryant, May Hopkins, and Grace and Maude Stewart; and A. C. Folger and O. E. Heath.

DISORDERED.—The trial of G. Blair, for assault with a deadly weapon, was commenced on Monday in the Superior Court. The following jurors were selected without much delay: W. H. Adair, W. Dickinson, M. T. Wain, Thos. Holliday, Fred. Ghous, B. D. Brown, J. A. Williams, Thos. Sly, Jno. McAllister, Jno. J. Hendrup, Matt. Goodwin, and A. F. Hector. The case went to the jury about 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. After supper the jury came into Court and reported a disagreement, but Judge Virden sent them back, and they stood out all night and came into Court on Wednesday morning and stated there was no likelihood of their agreeing, they standing 9 to 3. They were sent back again, but as there was no possibility of a verdict being reached, they were brought into Court and dismissed. W. O. Parker asked that the case be dismissed and the defendant discharged. At the request of District Attorney Hayes the matter was continued till the Court met on Thursday morning, when it was again continued till to-day.

SHORT WORK.—The trial of Geo. Troy, for assault with a deadly weapon, commenced on Wednesday morning, and but little time was occupied in getting a jury. Three witnesses were quickly examined for the prosecution, but none for the defense. The case was closed early that day, and the arguments on Thursday were brief, the case going to the jury at 10:30 A. M. The following were the jury: Joseph Allard, Thos. Sly, H. L. Leavitt, M. M. Waltze, Wm. Badley, Geo. Chibchester, A. F. Hector, B. T. Brown, B. L. Simmons, L. D. Ladd, Thos. Holliday and D. M. Walters. The jury came into Court and asked for instructions, and at 1 o'clock returned a verdict of guilty. Mr. Parker waived time for sentence and asked for leniency. Judge Virden imposed a fine of $500, or imprisonment in the county jail at the rate of $2 per day until paid. He paid the fine that evening to Sheriff Hays in Bodie.

RELOCATIONS.—Rev. Mr. Peck will hold services at the school house, on Wednesday evening next at 7 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended.

We had a heavy gale through this section last Sunday.

THE WATCHMAN.—Mains will leave, for the winter season, sometime during the month. All who have work in his line, should present it at once, to be sure of a good job.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.—At the last meeting of the Board of Education, the following certificates were granted: Miss Z. Hayden, of Bodie, was granted a Grammar Grade Certificate on a like certificate of another county. Miss Anderson and Sapp, Antelope teachers, received Grammar Grade Certificates on Normal School Certificates. Miss Z. Hayden was granted a certificate on a Grammar Grade Certificate. The Board adopted the new State Geography. The following books were added to the list of Library books: Prof. Felton's Sunbeams and Shadows; Gods and Heroes, by Frazer; Maroon Aurelius by Ginn & Co.; Henry's Song, a song book for schools, by E. O. Hanson.

THE NEW MINISTER.—The M. E. Nevada Conference met at last found a reverend gentleman who gives promise of being able to draw our people to church to a much greater extent than his many predecessors did. On Wednesday Rev. Mr. Peck, who arrived from the State of Washington last week for ministerial work at both Bodie and Bridgeport, arrived in town, and in the evening gave our citizens an opportunity to judge of his merits. He is a pleasant, genial gentleman, of commanding presence, and a forcible and fluent speaker, and his hearers were much pleased with him and his discourse. He will hold services every Wednesday evening, and we assure our readers that he is worthy of their attention, and we trust large congregations will greet him.

THE CONCERT.—The concert given on Monday evening by Prof. Heath was a fine entertainment, and highly creditable to the participants all being in good voice, Walter Merrill, of Landy, kindly assisted Heath, and sang a duet with him. He also sang a solo, and both responded to encore. This was the first appearance of Mr. Merrill in a concert at this place, and he quickly captured his hearers. The Glee quartet was nicely played by Miss Annie Bryant, with piano accompaniment by Mr. Heath. The conclusion was the cantata, "Grandfather's Birthday." It was well prepared, and passed off without a hitch. The music, solos and choruses were excellent, particularly the solo by little Grace Stewart. The attendance was good.

AFRICA ABOVE.—The pinpoint crop being much of a failure this year many of our Bridgeport Platers have gone over the mountains Sonora ward to get a stock of corn. The Indians have been very independent all through the summer and fall, but we guess they will be glad to come to the white man's "hogadi" before Spring.

SETTLE UP.—A. F. Bryant, next month, intends to leave for the other side of the mountains, to spend the winter, and wants to settle with debtors and creditors. See advertisement in another column.

ANTELOPE NOTES.

Antelope has a very unwelcome guest, of late, in the form of yellow jaundice, which is so popular that it is loth to break away and bid adieu to our fair valley. Among its numerous victims were Misses Florence Connell and Dora Hardy, and little Janie McKay, all of whom are slowly recovering.

Miss Hardy is at Bridgeport for health. Little Earl Badley and E. B. Shields' little boy are on the sick list.

Mrs. E. Terry, who accompanied her daughter, Miss George Beeding, and Miss Rita Mack to Bridgeport last week, has returned home, with the young ladies.

Joseph Carney has been quite ill again, but is better. He is greatly missed, when sick.

Dr. Sinclair came to the valley last week to attend jaundice patients.

Drs. Loosy, of San Francisco, and Herrick, of Carson, stopped here on their tour through the country.

Ida Connell has returned from a visit to Carson and Gardnerville.

A severe wind storm visited the valley on Sunday.

Levy Wamsack and John Marshall are over from "the other side."

We greatly miss Miss Cornelia Richards' genial presence, as she has a host of warm friends here.

Miss Sawyer, Miss Richards' successor, has arrived and taken charge of the Middle School.

Rev. Mr. Bott and children have recovered from their illness.

David McKay made a flying visit to Carson.

A "camera man" took a few shots at us recently, whether fatal or not, we will tell you later.

Me Creary's bill, to extend the time six months for Chinese to register, passed the House on Monday. Creary had it amended in these particulars: deferring the term of Chinese merchants, providing for photographing registered Chinese and requiring United States Marshals to execute the deportation clause with dispatch, and providing that pending its execution the Chinese, shall be confined and not be admitted to bail. The bill passed by a vote of 167 to 9.

Heavy storms on the great lakes and on the Atlantic coast on Friday and Saturday of last week caused many wrecks and loss of life.

HIS PLAINTIVE PLEA.

What He Thought He Should Have Added to His Narrative.

He had loved her very tenderly and for a long time, but she had scorned him, says the Detroit Free Press.

He was no worm either, for he would have turned when trod upon, but she recked not this.

It was enough for her that she did not care for him.

This is usually enough for any woman. Also for any man, when the boot is on the other foot.

For of such is the kingdom of Capet. His condition had at last become unbearable to him, and he had resolved to win all or lose all.

It was late one evening when the fateful moment arrived.

"Will you marry me?" he asked her in plain, untrilled English, for he could trust himself to nothing in the ornamental line.

She smiled him scornfully.

"No!" she replied with sarcastic, hateful, cruel emphasis—"no!"

The word pierced the heart in his bosom. His lips quivered and at first he could not speak.

"Have you no more to say?" he asked at last plaintively.

"No, sir," she replied. "What more could I say?"

"I didn't know," he murmured tremulously, "but I think you might have said 'No, I thank you!'"

New Use for Rubber.

Good results are obtained by using rubber in connection with an anchor rope in equalizing and relieving strain in dredging, and in measuring the depth and swiftness of currents. Formerly a severe strain was caused by a sudden jerking in a pitching vessel. This is now overcome by what is called a rubber accumulator, which consists of seventy rubber discs or buffers on a middle rod, so arranged that by compression they act as a spring. The buffers are cylindrical in shape, two and one-quarter inches in thickness, and separated from one another by metal discs one-eighth of an inch thick, and two inches larger in diameter than the rubber, which on expansion do not overlap the metal surfaces. In this device it is found that a compression can be had of five feet, which is sufficient to distribute the strain along the entire length of the ship. The application is made by running the rope from a reel located aft to the middle of the foremast, and then passing it through the rubber accumulator to the end of the snoring boom, which is a spar thirty feet long. From this the rope with a two-hundred-pound weight attached is dropped vertically into the sea.

C. H. Kelly, the upland grower, last evening resented the language bestowed upon him by a man whom he refused to credit and dealt him a severe blow with a heavy instrument for drawing nails from boxes. He was arrested on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon and held to bail in $500.—Carson News.

THE FOUNTAIN HEAD OF STRENGTH.

When we recollect that the stomach is the grand laboratory in which food is transformed into the secretions which furnish vigor to the system after due action of the liver and bowels, that it is, in short, the fountain head of strength it is essential to keep this important supplying machine in order, and to restore it to activity when it becomes inactive. This Hostetter's Stomach Bitters does most effectually, seasonably, regulating and reinforcing digestion, promoting due action of the liver and bowels, strength and quietude of the nerves depend in great measure upon thorough digestion. There is no service tonic more highly esteemed by the medical fraternity than the Bitters. Physicians also strongly commend it for chills and fever, rheumatism, indigestion and bladder trouble, sick headache, and want of appetite and sleep. Take a wineglassful three times a day.

A MEXICAN BUNKO GAME.

American Travelers Are Forced to Pay Bogus Board Bills to Sharper.

It is said that a favorite method that Mexican rascals have of swindling American visitors is to watch for them at the railway stations, and having selected a victim and ascertained that he is a certain train, to approach just before train time and demand money, represented to be due as a board bill at such and such a hotel, says the New Orleans Picayune. The victim will deny owing the bill, but the sharper insists, threatening to call the police and to have the matter settled before a justice. As the amount asked is usually for not more than two or three dollars, the victim commonly prefers to pay it rather than to have his journey delayed, especially if he understands the peculiarity of Mexican law, which always throws the burden of proof on the American. However barefaced the accusation, if it is urged by a native against an American, the chances are that the victim will have to spend some days in Belem prison before he can satisfy the authorities that he is innocent, and in the meantime the rascally accuser disappears.

A Snake That Climbs Glass Walls.

In the natural history museum at Paris there is a snake that climbs up the polished glass walls of its cage. The process is described as follows, and is vouched for by Leon Vaillant, "professor d'herpetologie." The snake, which is thirty centimeters long, first raises its head, some way against the glass, and proceeds to discharge from its salivary and lachrymal glands an adhesive viscous fluid, by the aid of which it succeeds in drawing its whole body up the cage. A curious fact is that the end of the tail is kept tightly curled, so as to afford a broader and more substantial base of operations. This phenomenon seems to dispose of the question whether snakes are able, as reported, to climb up walls and penetrate the ceilings of houses.
